在 Configuration 的選項中 看到 Facebook Page ID

The screenshot shows a web interface with three tabs: "Configuration" (highlighted with a red box), "Customize", and "Support". Under the "Configuration" tab, there is a sub-section "Configuration" with a "Facebook Page ID" option (highlighted with a blue box). Below this option is a text input field with the placeholder "於此輸入您的粉專ID" and a link "What's my Page ID?". An example "Eg. 1234567890123 or smashballoon" is provided. A blue callout box contains the text: "如果您不確定粉絲專頁ID為何可點選What's my Page ID? 並看到以下內容". Below the input field is a large blue-bordered box containing instructions: "If you have a Facebook page with a URL like this: https://www.facebook.com/your_page_name then the Page ID is just your_page_name. If your page URL is structured like this: https://www.facebook.com/pages/your_page_name/123654123654123 then the Page ID is actually the number at the end, so in this case 123654123654123. If you have a Facebook group then use this tool to find your ID. You can copy and paste your ID into the demo to test." A red callout box points to the "this tool" link with the text: "點選 this tool 找到ID". At the bottom, there is a checkbox for "Enter my own Access Token" (with the subtext "This is Recommended") and a link "What is this?". A light gray box below contains text: "A Facebook Access Token is not required to use this plugin, but we recommend it so that you're not reliant on the token built into the plugin. If you have your own token then you can check this box and enter it here. To get your own Access Token you can follow these step-by-step instructions."

The screenshot shows the Lookup-ID.com website interface. At the top, the site name "Lookup-ID.com" is displayed in white on a dark blue background. Navigation links include "Facebook ID", "Facebook Card", "FB Search", "Extract Members", "Directory", and "Resources".
